SUN BEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

The sage forecaster who predicted that we would be without a summer this year, basing his calculations on the fact that there was a wintery summer in 1838 , thus far has made a good guess. Imagine a snow storm on June 19, even in a country where snow is the prevalent type of weather

That the fire department is receiving the full cooperation of the tradespeople of Truckee is indicated in the fact that their solicitations have born a good harvest. Many have still neglected to come forward with their donations but the committee reports excellent results.

If you haven't registered for the primary election, it is high time you took care of that important matter After the books are closed there will be regrets, unless you don't wish to excercise your right to vote!

Efforts are being made to promote the annual fund for raising trout to be planted in the Truckee River. No one can deny the value of this project and few will decline to support it, we hope. Petitions are being prepared for circulation and it can be hoped that Truckee's biggest industry will go begging for lack of financial assistance.

It is indeed fortunate that some unsuspecting motorist did not happen to be along that portion of highway on Tahoe the other day when a reckless driver plowed through a few trees and eventually crashed to a standstill after a tempestuous ride only to be arrested and claim he was the victim of a hit-and-runner. We possibly would have felt sorry for a hit-runner had there been one, which there was not!

Truckee should feel fortunate in being able to retain Rev. and Mrs Ernest Everett for the coming year. Rev. Everett's reappointment to the local Community Church at the conference recently was most pleasing He and Mrs. Everett have done some fine work during their stay here and plan even more for the future.

A look at the proposed program to be offered by the fire department here in celebration of the Fourth of July will indicate plainly that the boys have not been idle. The list of events promises to be one for the enjoyment of all and in terming the fete an old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration they did not miss.

Driver Charged As Reckless Driver In Tahoe Mishap

Crashes Into Trees In Wild Ride On Highway At Lake

Reckless driving charges have been lodged against Shirley Waldo Ashley, 31, Oakland, as the result of one of the most fortunate accidents of the year at a spot near King's Beach on Lake Tahoe last Saturday. Patrolman Gene Walker of the state highway patrol filed the charges following an investigation.

According to witnesses, the officer reported, Ashley was driving along the curved highway at an excessive rate of speed when his car left the pavement, skidded in the loose gravel for a distance of 240 feet, struck and uprooted a tree 18 inches in diameter and 35 feet tall, carried the tree for more than 50 feet to a top of a rise and came to a stop. Ashley, who stayed at the wheel throughout the wild ride, escaped with only minor injuries.

Ashley at first told Officer Walker his car was struck by another machine, but witnesses, the patrolman said, denied that another car was involved.

Ashley was cited to appear before Justice of the Peace Bliss on June 27.

ADVERTISING MAN INJURED IN AUTO MISHAP AT TAVERN

O. H. Stanfield, advertising manager of a radio station in Santa Rosa, received a fractured hip, cuts and bruises and his bride of a few hours escaped injury when their car skidded off the highway near Rainbow Tavern yesterday afternoon and was wrecked.

The Stanfields were married in Reno yesterday morning.

Two other machines left the road because of the slippery condition but no one else was injured.

W. H. Laity of Truckee returned Stanfield to his home in an abulance.

Owing to the slippery condition of the highway following the recent rain storms, two other cars left the road in the same locality but no one else was injured.

Stanfield's car was demolished.

Firemen Attend Meet Of State Association At Auburn Sunday

Dolley, Lieutenant Elmo Granata and Sergeant at Arms Harry Baldwin of the Truckee Volunteer Fire Department last Sunday attended a meeting of the Northern California Firemen's Association at Auburn where an interesting program was enjoyed and much instructive material gained by the firemen. Lost Elks Charm Returned To Truckee Loser

Dan D. Smith had a stroke of luck recently when an Elks tooth charm, given him by Mrs. Smith years ago, was returned to him shortly after it had been lost when he was leaving his car on Commercial Row. After offering a reward for the charm, it was returned to him soon by an unidentified man who had found it.

Budget Slashed By Trustees At Local Meeting

$5,000 Cut From Expenses To Assure Lower Tax Rate

$1,700 IN RESERVE FUND

Provision Made For Part-time Athletic Instructor At Session

With approximately $1700 in the general reserve fund and a $1200 deficit from the previous fiscal year paid, the trustees of the Meadow Lake Union high school district at a meeting Monday night slashed the tentative school budget nearly $5000 and set the sum to be expended for 1938-39 at $10,611.

If the tentative budget is approved at the public hearing to be called on a date to be advertised later and meets with the approval of the officials, it should mean an approximate saving of eight cents on the local tax rate for the coming year.

Last year the assessment for the high school was 24 cents.

Naturally salaries of the teachers accounts for the largest item in the proposed budget, $7,600 being allocated for this purpose. An additional $1050 was estimated as cost of operating the school plant while the third major item will be transportation, the amount being raised somewhat over last year to $850. Maintenance of the property, insurance and other incidental make up the balance.

While it was not deemed advisable this year to employ full time physical education instructor, the sum of $250 was budgeted to permit the employment of a part time instructor in this important phase of modern education None on the present faculty is qualified to do this work and the majority of the board did not recommend any changes in the present faculty.

At the next meeting of the board to be held July 1 at the high school new officers will be named and other reorganization work done. Mrs. Henrietta Weeks will replace Walter M Barrett on the board at that time.

Schmeling Crawl Will Be Opening Feature On 4th

Although he had no doubt intended something entirely different for the occasion, Ralph Bretthauer, bartender at Tony's Club, will provide the firemen's Fourth of July celebration with a rousing start, Saturday, July 2, when he makes a solo parade down the main street on his hands and knees, with the accompaniment of band music.

Bretthauer and Walt Ashton, genial proprietor of the Truckee Meat Market, failed to agree on the outcome of the Louis-Schmeling encounter last night and the barkeep missed in his judgment by 14 rounds and so instead of the butcher making the crawl, Bretthauer will keep his word and do the unusual march.

TAHOE CITY, June 23.— Nevada's side of Lake Tahoe will soon be honored with the residences of some of the west's most prominent people, according to Norman Biltz, who announced here this week that among those purchasing states on the lake's eastern shore is Janet Gaynor, who, it is said, contemplates the building of a palatial home near the site of the original old Hobart family residence.

She has just bought a 15-acre tract near Incline from George Whittell through his agents, the property having a lake frontage of 900 feet with a depth of 1100 feet from the highway to shore. To date approximately 2500 feet have been sold by the newly organized Hobart Estate Sales company.

Our young nimrods are making it live ly for the black birds. The Chinamen buy them at the rate of thirty cents per dozen.

Mrs. G. O. Ford of Grasshopper Valley, Lassen County, is visiting with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Swan.

If the weather remains pleasant for a few days, the avenues leading to the logging and mining camps will be opened and then Truckee will assume her old business like appearance.

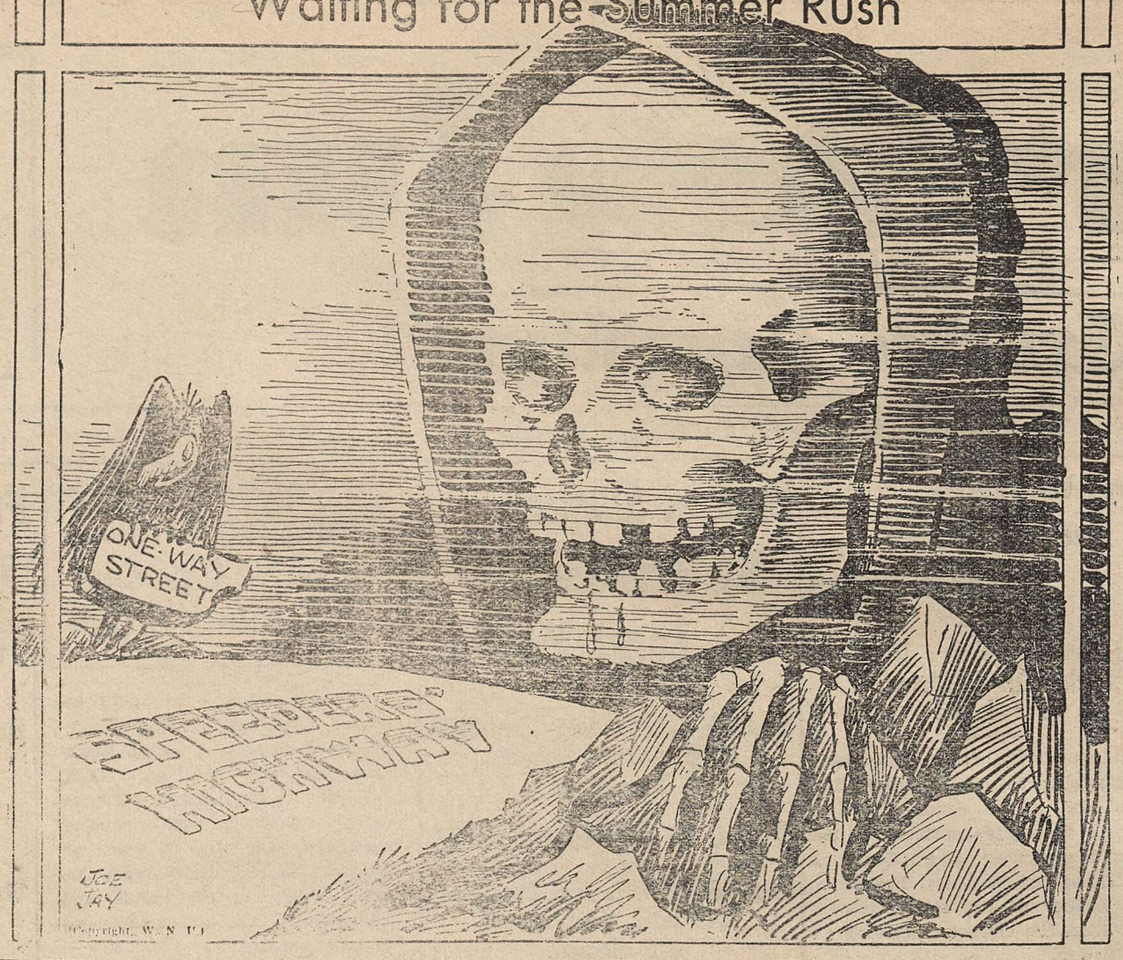

The season is fast approaching when it requires a close surveillance of the train men to keep tramps off the trains. Usually, when caught in the act of stealing a ride, they have no hesitancy in stepping off, but in some cases show fight and come off worsted. It is not an uncommon thing of a morning to see dozens of vicious looking vags, without any visible means of support, seemingly enjoying themselves notwithstanding the fact that they know they are a pperpetual annoyance to persons passing by.

David Ogilvie came up from Boca yesterday and made this office a call. He reports everything as looking prosperously in that camp. The mill is running, the brewery booming as it were, the measles disappearing, the school closed for the year and every one happy and contented. Mr. Ogilvie

Denies Complication

Lieutenant Governor George J. Hatfield was recently charged by the United Drys of America to deny or affirm the support of Arthur H. Samish San Francisco lobbyist, now under investigation by the Sacramento grand jury for offering bribes to legislators. Hatfield at once denied he had a deal on with Samish and pointed out that the ex senate page boy had supported the governor in 1934. He failed to comment on the fact that his campaigners sent out all sorts of publicity last month claiming the wholehearted support of "Artie" Samish.

STAMP OUT THE FIRE BUG

The National Board of Fire Underwriters reports that during 1937 further notable progress was made in combating one of the most despicable of all crimes—arson.

For the period 1932 to 1936, inclusive, the yearly totals of both arrests and convictions for arson underwent an uninterrupted decline—in spite of increased vigilance by police, prosecuting authorities and insurance companies. In other words, the decline meant that the efficiency of this work proved to be a deterrent. A great many people who were tempted to commit arson saw that they couldn't get away with it.

During 1937, there was a slight increase in arrests and convicitions over 1936, which is accounted for by the unfavorable economic conditions prevailing during the last half of the year. Even so, it is a noteworthy fact that in 1937 arrests were the lowest for any year of the past ten, excepting 1936, and that the ratio of convictions to acquittals was improved in favor of the former, which testifies to the success and energy of prosecutors.

The 1937 figures tell the story. Arrests rose 6 per cent over th previous year. Convictions increased 21 per cent, and acquittals were less than 5 per cent greater. And the ratio of convictions to acquittals was 80 per cent.

This is good news for America. The arsonist deserves no pity. He works in the dark and every time he strikes the lives of innocent people are endangered. Due to the surprise factor the chance of loss of life in arson fires is often abnormally high. The men who are fighting arson are serving us all.

SPIRIT OF 79

"If you keep youd mind young, you'll never really grow old!"

The 79-year old co-ed who uttered those sage words, has really been living them as well. Last Friday, along with 374 other graduating senior of San Jose State College, Mrs. Laure Bacon Bailey received the capstone of four years' work and study— an A. B. degree.

Life, says Pitkin, begins at forty. Here she marches forth with a brand new diploma at 79. That's making Pitkin look like a piker.

....We picked the following from the Truckee Republican of May 19, 1880:

"The condition of the streets and sidewalks in a town speak for the enterprise and good taste of the residents thereof. Cannot the city fathers take a glance at the plaza and discover need for a little public work. Let the rubbish be removed and things sliked up a little just for the benefit of the tourists who will come along after a while."

Peddlers are Warned On License Law at Tahoe

TAHOE CITY, June 23.—Constable Harry Johanson has been appointed by the Placer County board of supervisors to serve as deputy tax collector for the district. His new duties are to investigate all peddlers' trucks in the district. Those operating without paying the quarterly tax may secure the license from the officer.

Mrs. Angie Lorendahl and two girls Beverly and Marian of Lincoln, accompanied by E. W. Ames and son James of Newcastle visited friends in Tahoe on Sunday last.

Expected in on Tuesday are Mrs. J. L. Debenedetti and family from San Mateo. Mr. Debendetti arrived nearly a week ago to prepare for the family's incoming this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Westphal and Clifford Smith motored up from San Francisco last Sunday to reopen the family summer home for the season. His mother, Mrs. Laura Westphal and two small daughters will join the family here around the end of June.

Warnings have been sounded by fire wardens of this district regarding burning of brush and refuse without a permit. A fine was imposed on James Ferguson Wednesday by Judge Bliss, but the amount was suspended when he declared he had misunderstood the regulations.

Four grammar school graduates, Edith Tarwater, Betty Blossom Tidwell, Stuart Pyle and Robert Wathen, will receive diplomas at closing exercises in the school auditorium on Friday. A special program is being prepared for 7:30 p. m. and parents and friends are invited to attend.

Tahoe residents are reminded that the outgoing mail leaving Tahoe City from now until further notice, does not depart until 5:30 p. m. the post office remaining open until six each evening except Sunday, when mail is distributed between 9:30 a. m. and 10 30 for one hour only. The trains that started their summer schedule on June 12, leaving nightly at 10:15 p. m. and letters may be mailed on the car up to that time. Sam Neff is again in charge of the express office at the Tavern and Joe Bick is the ticket agent.

LOG CABIN, FAMOUS TAHOE RESORT TO HAVE BIG OPENING

TAHOE CITY, June 23.— Tonight one of the lake's most famous night spots, The Log Cabin, popular for years past with the throng which enjoys the lure of song and dance in the wee hours, and the thrills of the uncertainty which coursed through the blood of Kentucky's old colonels, will hold its annual formal opening

Nothing has been forgotten by the genial managers, Fred Reiselt and Johnny Rayburn in an effort to please and entertain even the most fastidious customer. The best of everything is on hand. A beautiful new cocktail bar has been installed, acreation of new cedar inlaid with mahogany. Head barkeep is Robert MacMurray, who starts his second season at Tahoe this month. He will be assisted by fiddling "Dud" Benson. Nothing but the most popular, nationally advertised brands will be stocked at the Log Cabin where "service with a smile" is guaranteed, the management stated.

Strangers at the Cabin are always impressed with the blazing fire in the wide rock fireplace and the lavish display of stuffed and mounted animals wihch adorn the spacious log walls of the resort. Airy native moss fills the fissures and lends a rustic and pleasing appearance. In various natural poses are to be seen sand hill crane, enormous eagle with far flung wings, colorful peacock, bob cats, owls, reindeer hide and an enormous bear rug. Of historic interest too are the prized muckletts worn by Scotty Allen when he won the international dog derby at Nome years ago. Perhaps the most prized of all exhibits is Reiselt's 8 by 10 Navajo rug, history of which is lengthy as the distance between Tahoe and its original home in Arizona. Tales of Indian lore, filled with intrigue and romance are woven into its brilliant pattern. It will be found on the wall of the club room which has been enlarged. The management urges all to spend an evening of merriment and dancing at the Log Cabin in the rear of Tahoe Inn where "Happy" Lane's orchestra will furnish music that pleases.

FASHION SHOW FOR TAHOE IS SUCCESS

TAHOE CITY, June 23.— The fashion show and mothers' tea staged by the young women of the high school on Friday proved a highly successful affair. Some of the dresses displayed by the models were made in the sewing classes, the rest being loaned by Rossarini's of Truckee.

Latest style creations were modeled by Misses Eunice Duffee, Marilyn Hinkle, Beccy Brodehl, Helen Worden, Dolores Pyle and Pauline Steinheimer. Miss Mary Pronzato made the announcements and Mrs. Roy Mikkelson furnished the music. Refreshments were served following the display, the young ladies of the high school serving as hostesses.

Death Claims Visitor At Tahoe Summer Home

TAHOE CITY, June 23.— Death struck again at Tahoe on Friday evening at 7:30, its victim being the prominent Vineburg, Sonoma county rancher, Walter Bundschu, 55 who succumbed to a heart attack while seated in the dining room with the members of his family. He had been in poor health for some time and his death was attributed to a clot on the heart by Dr. C. B. Pedersen, who was called.

The body was removed to the Laity Funeral Home in Truckee and then sent to Berkeley for rites.

Walter A. Carlson, principal of the Nevada City elementary school for the past nine years, this week said he was a candidate for the position of county superintendent of schools at the August 30 primary.

Carlson has the support of some of the leading educators of the county and his qualifications to fulfill the duties of the important office are not questioned.

The candidate is a graduate of the Humboldt State College of Arcata, his native city. He holds a bachelor of arts degree from that institution awarded to him only last year. He holds a life certificate as elementary teacher, high credentials as a teacher in junior high school and a life school administrator's certificate and credentials.

During the first four years of his residence in Nevada County he was employed as teacher at the Washington school and for nine years has been principal in Nevada City. His many friends have endorsed him as a capable, efficient and conscientious man, fully able to care for the duties of school superintendent.

SNOW VISITS LAKE ON FATHER'S DAY; DAMAGE CAUSED

TAHOE CITY, June 23.— Dads an dtheir families on Father's Day at Tahoe last Sunday awoke to find a blanket of white on the surrounding scenery—snow having fallen during the night.

In some sections of the Sunnyside district, two to three inches of snow fell, while at Eagle Falls it was reported six inches lay on the ground. All, however, was soon gone, hardly a trace remaining by noon. It was a most unusual sight for this season of the year, and all unpredicted by weather forecasters.

Dark overcast skies developed on Monday into a deluge of rain during the early evening in most sections. And just any number of tourists departed for home. Something really should be one about the weather.

High winds and waters of Saturday and Sunday raised havoc with breakwaters, small boats, piers, retaining walls and beaches in general, little of the latter remaining in evidence anywhere. Thomas R. King, Nevada engineer has been making a survey for the past week of damage reported on the south side of the lake, particularly by the highest water in 20 years and the severe wind storms.

Only .27 inches of precipitation on Sunday was recorded, the lake standing at 6228.39 and still rising. A meeting was scheduled to be held near Bijou between government men and south end property owners who are protesting the high water mark.

-California Political Review-

Politically Speaking

by John W. Dunlap
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, June 23, —(UP)— Governor Frank F. Merriam, one of the shrewdest politicians in the business, gets a chance this campaign to demonstrate again his skill in appointment shuffling.

The governor has been favored in recent weeks with a series of resignations which left vacant several important state posts. Faced with perhaps the hardest fight of his career, the appointment situation is a "break" in the governor's favor.

Oustanding vacancies are two positions on the state railroad commission, regulatory body for the state's utilities, which pay $8,000 annually. The term of Commissioner Leon O. Whitsell of Bakersfield expires next January and the governor already has the resignation of Commissioner Wallace Ware of Santa Rosa, effective next month. Ware's term would have expired next January.

Conceivably, Merriam could appoint an interim successor to Ware to hold office until the balance of the term. Then, win, lose or draw, he could name replacements for both positions. However, it is likely the man named to fill the unexpired vacancy will also draw the regular six year appointment.

In any case the advantage of the situation, from the governor's standpoint, needs little emphasis. And the governor is observing his customary procedure of moving with care to find successors.

Indeed, both Merriam's friends and enemies criticize his tactics regarding appointments. It has been argued that the way to handle an appointment is to have available a list of likely candidates. When a vacancy occures under these circumstances, a replacement is hurried into the breach before the army of friends, favor seekers and camp followers moves in on the governor with so many names that finally it is impossible to make a selection without walking on many sensitive toes.

Yet there is the record to support the governor's method. He has never been one to jump hastily into a situation, and a long political record would seem to support the wisdom of this course.

The railroad commission is not the only item on the governor's patronage list. In fact he has reversed his normal way of doing business by replacing State Insurance Commissioner Samuel L. Carpenter, Jr., and the director of military and veterans affairs John R. Quinn. Both resigned only a few days ago.

The governor named Rex B. Goodcell, Los Angeles attorney, to Carpenters' job. The salary is $7,500 a year. Quinn was replaced by moving veterans' welfare board member Richard J. Welch, Jr., of Riverside to Quinn's former position as chairman. The veterans' welfare board administers veterans' affairs and the board chairman also serves as chief of the state's division of veterans' welfare.

The latter stategy illustrates a favorite Merriam device. Welch was moved up to the head of the division thereby leaving a board position open and giving the governor an additional appointment.

And the way is open for a similar maneuver in the case of a vacancy on the fourth district appellate court bench created by the recent death of Judge Lacy Jennings.

If he employs t pattern employed before the governor could name a Superior Judge to the appellate court move a municipal court judge to the Superior bench and name a third man in the Municipal court post. In baseball and political circles, this is known as a triple play. The Welch appointment illustrates the double play technique.

Although many vacancies on various state boards and commissions have been filled in recent months, several other positions are available.

There are vacancies on the Alameda and Coulsa county Superior court benches. A position on the state athletic commission is held temporarily by Verne Landreth, one of the governor's secretaries.

Sheriff Daniel C. Murphy of San Francisco is pinning his hopes of occupying the governor's chair on a split in the Democratic vote in the south. The angle will bear some watching. Murphy is the only northern California Democrat in the field, while in the populous southern sector five Bourbon candidates headed by State Senator Culbert L. Olson are battling for the nomination.

Basing his drive principally on an appeal for "industrial peace in California," Murphy should rally a considerable element of support from the ranks of business and conservative labor as well.

His record in both fields is good. As a member of the legislature in the days before the CIO, his voting record was pleasing to the American Federation of Labor.

FOR MERRIAM

TALLANT TUBBS

While the Democratic party in California will have to choose between 8 candidates for governor in November the Republican race can reasonably be narrowed down to two contestants. Followers of both Lt. Gov. George Hatfield and Gov. Frank Merriam are starting on a tooth and nail campaign from which the G. O. P. nominee will emerge. Both claim the support of eminent party leaders in the state. Hatfield forces advertise that former governor C. C. Young is in favor of the lieuenant governor at the same time the governor's political pals say that Tallant Tubbs, Bay business man and G. O. P. aspirant to the Senate in 1932, would return from the British Isles next month to actively support the incumbent.

ANSWERS CHARGE

Culbert Olson, Democratic candidate for governor, this week completed his county organizations and announced his platform. Some time ago Lt. Gov Hatfield attacked Olson as a dangerous radical. Olson replied in the forward to his platform that the Merriam-Hatfield regime is intolerable alike to taxpayer, businessman and laborer.

District Attorney Stoll Seeks Re-election; Has Excellent Record

Vernon Stoll, district attorney of Nevada County for the past four years, announced this week to local friends that he would be a candidate for reelection at the primaries on August 30.

Few, if any district attorneys of this county have ever faced more trying conditions than Stoll. That he has fulfilled the duties of his office faithfully and well is vouched for by scores of friends who have watched his handling of legal affairs of the county.

Not alone has Stoll handled the crimnial matters which fall in his line of duty, but much credit is due for the efficient and capable way he has tended the civil and complicated legal matters. These include the way he went about securing WPA projects for Nevada City, Grass Valley and Truckee, the new grammar school here having been obtained through his legal activities.

Stoll is a graduate of the law school of the University of California and during the nine years since his graduation has been active in the county affairs. He is a member and director of the Grass Valley Chamber of Commerce, director of the Lions Club of that city and is secretary of the Tahoe Livestock Association, director of the Rod and Gun club and director of the Twentieth Agricultural district.

Stoll has visited Truckee on many occasions and only last week prosecuted a reckless driver, obtaining a conviction and $200 fine. Throughout his term, he has never exceeded the monetary allowance granted him by the county, although he has been pivileged to do so.
